JUN 11 Canyon Cody on Culture Remixed 329
Subsuelo's Canyon Cody is the guest for episode 329 of the radio show. This is the second installment of the summer series featuring extended interviews with Los Angeles area DJs going beyond what may be their most known parties and associations.
I start the show with new music from Jincallo, Uji, Chancha Via Circuito, and Spaghetti Cumbia while going back and forth between vinyl and digital selections. In my rundown of my set I failed to include that I played tracks by Depakote and Flako.

JUN 11 Culture Remixed 328
Solo show for 328. The new music release schedule is starting to heat up and you'll see some new things in the mix on this one.
328: The Answer is 42 - 6.2.18
Thank you all for listening.

MAY 29 Aztlan Quetzal on Culture Remixed 327
Aztlan Quetzal aka Chaboi is the guest for episode 327 which marks seven years of the radio show. Aside from being a producer, DJ, and guitarist in the band Model Soul, he is one of the founders of Late Night Lagers, a group known for putting together some of the best underground dance parties in Los Angeles. His DJ set features numerous exclusive tracks, some so secret the label that will be releasing them isn't even public yet.

MAY 23 "Ilaló (Ft. Mateo Kingman)" by Chancha Via Circuito
Buenos Aires, Argentina producer Chancha Via Circuito has a new album coming out on June 8, 2018 through Wonderwheel Recordings. Entitled Bienaventuranza, it marks his fourth full-length release. "Ilaló (Ft. Mateo Kingman)" shows Chancha Via Circuito continued evolution of his blend of Andean instrumentation and electronic beats. Here a charango provides a crisp melody while cumbia inspired beats and a pulsing bass line back Mateo Kingman's vocals.

MAY 22 Culture Remixed 326
Flying solo for episode 326. Mix of new and old beats.
326: All Good - 5/12/18
Thanks for listening. Our next show will mark seven years of Culture Remixed Radio. Listen live on radiospacio.org on Saturdays from 6-8pm Pacific time.

MAY 9 Culture Remixed 325
Solo show with a blend of beats ranging from noise to jazz and funk
